PRESS RELEASE

Village of Floral Park Village Clerk Susan Walsh, RMC Receives New York State Association of City and Village Clerks 2022 Clerk of the Year Award

The New York State Association of City and Village Clerks, (NYSACVC) is proud to announce that the Village of Floral Park's Village Clerk Susan Walsh is the recipient of the NYSACVC 2022 Clerk of the Year Award.

Ms. Walsh will soon be celebrating her 23rd anniversary the Village of Floral Park. Ms. Walsh has served as Village Clerk since 2010 and prior to that she served as Deputy Village Clerk for seven year, Clerk to the Village Justice and Assistant to the Village Administrator.

During her career Ms. Walsh has continued her professional development and has earned designation as Registered Municipal Clerk through the NYSACVC and continues to pursue the Certified Municipal Clerk designation through the International Institute of Municipal Clerk, (IIMC).

Ms. Walsh is a member of the IIMC, the New York State Association of City and Village Clerks, the Long Island Village Clerks and Treasurers Association and the Nassau County Village Officials Association. She was also a member of both the Nassau/Suffolk and NY State Association of Magistrates Court Clerks.

In 2003 Ms. Walsh served as Secretary of the Long Island Clerks and Treasurers Association. She also served as President, 1st Vice President and Treasurer of the Floral Park Southside Civic Association.

Ms. Walsh is a member of the Floral Park American Legion Ladies Auxiliary Post 334 and is a Certified Second Responder for the Nassau County Community Emergency Response Team.

Ms. Walsh works constantly to support the Mayor and Trustees, care for the residents and resolve unexpected surprises.

Mayor Kevin Fitzgerald described Ms. Walsh as being "The living definition of an outstanding public servant and role model for all who serve the public good."

We are honored to present the 2022 Clerk of the Year Award to Village Clerk Susan Walsh of the Village of Floral Park.
